SECURING PRIZES FOR CORN COMPETITION

COMPLETE LIST TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON.

BOYS CORN CLUBS.

Corn Exhibit Will Take Place Here in November and Valuable Prizes Will Be Awarded.

Some earnest work is now being done by those interested in the Boy's Corn Club work for Anderson county and if no plans go astray the exhibit to be held here about the middle of November will do much to stimulate the boys of the county in their endeavors to raise more corn and better corn than this county has ever produced.

J. W. Rothrock, president of the Anderson County Farmers Union and demonstration agent for this county, has been working on the prize list for some days and while the list is not yet complete, Mr. Rothrock has secured some very valuable prizes for the boys.

He has announced that the following firms will give prizes: Anderson Phosphate and Oil Company, one ton of 8-4-4 fertilizer.

People's Oil Company, ten sacks of cotton seed meal.

Furman Smith, wholesale seedman, 100 pounds of vetch.

Tolly Furniture Company, one rocking chair.

Tate Hardware Company, one W. J. Oliver turn plow, Number 10.

H. O. Evans & Company, one set of scales.

Ligon & Ledbetter, 50 pounds of Snowdrift lard in 20 pound buckets.

D. Wyatt Aiken, congressman from this district, $10 in cash.

People's Grocery Company, one barrel of good flour.

Mr. Rothrock plans to give two prizes in every contest and it will therefore be necessary to secure the co-operation of several more of the business houses of the city, but he anticipates no difficulty in getting together the remainder of the prizes.

While the prizes for the different classes have not yet been decided upon, the following are the number of classes which the boys may enter:

For the cheapest corn per acre.

For the best 10 ears.

For the best written report of crop work, preparation and cultivation.

For the greatest yield per acre.

For the boy or girl bringing in the ear containing the most seed.

Mr. Rothrock says that he hopes every member of the Corn Club will prepare reports and get ready to enter the exhibit and contests, regardless of whether the yield is especially large or not. He believes that the coming exhibit will attract more boys to Anderson for the day than has been the case since the movement was first started.

CAKE SALE TODAY.

Philathea Class Will Offer Many Delicacies For Sale.

The usual cake sale, conducted by the Senior Philathea Class of the First Presbyterian church, will be held today in the vacant store room on the square formerly occupied by the Citizens National Bank. Friends of the class are asked to remember that cakes and candies, together with fancy work, will be offered at reasonable prices.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up.

No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.

That's why they can't improve the quality and war or no war, the price remains the same. E. J. Sargent, Dallas, Tex., says: "I believe Foley's Honey and Tar has no equal for its complete relief of me of all symptoms of tuberculosis and my cough has entirely disappeared." Don't accept any substitute for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best. Evans' Pharmacy agents.

SOME EXCITEMENT OVER A RUNAWAY

W. P. Stephenson Was Slightly Injured When Horse Vaulted to One of Sidewalks.

Some excitement was occasioned yesterday afternoon shortly after 6 o'clock when a horse, belonging to the Anderson Cash Grocery ran away and took one side of the street for his very own. The horse was hitched to a delivery wagon and was standing at the Blue Ridge passenger station when he became frightened at a train. He ran up Erie street, the next driver meanwhile having jumped from the wagon, and on up Main street until just in front of Reed's Music house he started for the pavement. At that time W. P. Stephenson, who was in his buggy on one side of the street, jumped for the pavement and when he struck the ground his foot slipped and he fell. He sustained a very painful sprain of one wrist. Little damage was done to either the horse or the delivery wagon.

Acute Indigestion.

"I was annoyed for over one year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for they helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by all dealers.

HOUSTON PLAN IS BEST SUGGESTED

Anderson Farmers Say That They Are Well Pleased With Idea for Handling the Cotton Crop.

Columbia, Oct. 9.—Special: One by one the radical measures are being eliminated in the general assembly of South Carolina. The members are gradually getting back to earth after a long flight through impossible legislation.

The one big question before the general assembly is that of curtailment of the 1915 crop. Just how this is to be accomplished is not known. The leaders in the House and Senate are seeking light on the subject. Every suggestion is welcomed. The suggestions are being combined by the leaders and it is hoped that something of a definite nature will be the outcome.

After playing for several days many of the members have come to the conclusion that it will be best for the legislature to adjourn at the earliest possible date. Time is flying and whatever cotton legislation is adopted should be passed upon at once. The leaders are pointing out that a delay will be disastrous.

John L. McLaughlin and W. F. Stephenson recently returned from Texas, where they appeared before the extraordinary session of the legislature, called to consider cotton legislation, and they are of the opinion that the Lone Star State alone will be influenced by the action of the South Carolina assembly.

Members of the House and Senate today took notice of the interview by Secretary of Agriculture, Houston, in which he urged diversification of crops, as one of the important features of the campaign to save the South from embarrassment. A resolution calling upon the farmers of the South Carolina to grow more food stuffs will very probably be adopted at the present session.

The Senate has agreed to accept $5 per day and railroad fare for this extra session. To this the House objected, which means that each member will receive $300, the regular pay for a regular session. At this rate the session will cost the taxpayers more than $50,000. There is no funds to pay this amount and a loan will have to be made.

The political measures that have been introduced this week will receive slight attention. The members are determined not to allow the politically inclined to muddy the waters. The emergency measures will receive attention and later the political measures will be voted down.

James A. Hoyt, member of the House from Richland county, will be the next speaker of the House of Representatives. Dr. Geo. W. Dick, of Sumter, having withdrawn from the race. Mr. Hoyt is a son of the late James A. Hoyt. He is engaged in the banking business in Columbia and is a former newspaper man, having at one time been the editor of The Columbia Record. He has been clerk of the House for several years.

The candidates for clerk of the House, J. R. McGhee, J. W. Gibbs, Harold C. Booker and others are waging a warm campaign in Columbia this week. Each is claiming success. Conversations with the candidates sound like bulletins from the war in Europe. They are all gaining ground.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Forence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

COL. JEFF D. MAXWELL DIED IN CHARLOTTE

WILL BE BURIED HERE TODAY.

ONCE LIVED HERE.

Had Been Sick For Many Months And Sad News Had Been Expected in Anderson.

Telegrams were received in Anderson yesterday morning which announced that Col. Jefferson D. Maxwell was dead in Charlotte, N. C. For many weeks Col. Maxwell had been very ill, suffering with Bright's disease and Anderson people knew that there was no hope for his recovery, but they were hardly prepared for the announcement that the end had come.

During the many years that Col. Maxwell lived in Anderson he was always identified with every progressive step or measure proposed for the city. He was an active factor in the commercial, industrial and social life of Anderson. He was the first to organize a building and loan association in Anderson, assisted with the organization of one of the city's weak banks, played an important part in securing Anderson's first hotel, was one of the promoters of the Savannah Valley railroad and during his life did much for Anderson.

J. D. Maxwell was born in Oconee county, June 2, 1851. His father was Dr. Robert Maxwell, his mother was a Miss Sloan. He sprang from two prominent families of South Carolina. In 1865 he came to Anderson to work for F. B. Crayton & Sons, where he was the office man for nine years in that then large mercantile establishment. He married in 1875 Miss Alice Von Borstell, daughter of Maj. Chas. Von Borstell, a Confederate soldier and a native Prussian from the shore of the Baltic sea.

To them six children have been given all of whom survive him except the youngest, Miss Christine, whose untimely death was chronicled just the 20th of September. The surviving children are Messrs. Fred Maxwell, of Winston, N. C.; Jeff, Jr., of Philadelphia; James, of Knoxville; John, of Richmond, and Mrs. Alice Clinard, of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Col. Maxwell's body will arrive in Anderson over the Piedmont & Northern line this afternoon at 3:20 o'clock and will be carried directly to the First Baptist church, where the funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. O. L. Martin. Interment will take place at Silver Brook cemetery.

POSITIVELY MASTERS CROUP

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking mucus, and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, strangling fight for breath gives away to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg, Mass. Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." No wonder a man in Texas walked 15 miles to the store to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Every user is a friend. For sale by Evans' Pharmacy.

PEOPLE TO WEAR COTTON CLOTHES

Idea Is Capital One and Officials Plan to Lend Aid.

While the cotton situation does not seem to be materially improved by the many efforts being put forth to help the Southern cotton farmer, nevertheless almost every business agency in the country seems to be trying to help. Having become interested in the movement launched in Washington for people to wear clothes made of cotton instead of silks and satins, the Atlantic Coast Line railroad has written to all its agents in different sections of the country, endorsing the plan. The following copy was received by Anderson railroad men:

A movement originating in Washington, D. C., supported by the wives of cabinet officers, and other ladies has been inaugurated with the view of stimulating the sale of cotton goods, during the week beginning October 5th.

"It is felt that such an effort will have a far reaching effect in promoting the sale of the products of our principal staple; that it will cause merchants to buy increased supplies and thereby stimulate the manufacture and the sale of cotton, and that money otherwise stagnant will thus be brought back into circulation."

Such a movement, as indicated above, meets the approval of this company and agents and other officials or employees are earnestly requested to lend their hearty support to the scheme, and to secure therefor the co-operation of newspapers, merchants and other business men in their respective communities.

"This is a practical method of assisting ourselves at a time when aid is necessary, and of developing a market for goods which we ourselves produce."

"Please use every means in your power to make this movement a success, and urge assistance from your local newspapers, your business people and your personal friends."

Grandma's Telephone Visits

GRANDMA SMITH is a sprightly old lady who likes to keep in touch with things. In the next town lives another dear old lady who was Grandma's school-mate, and of whom she is very fond. It is impossible for the two old ladies to do much visiting, but every day they call each other up on the telephone and have the most delightful chats.

No one gets more comfort and pleasure out of the family telephone than Grandma.

TWO PRETTY CUPS FOR PREMIUMS

Will Be Given At Coming Poultry Show For the Amateur Chicken Fancier.

According to a letter received in Anderson yesterday by J. L. Jolly, the Southern Fancier-Farmer, devoted to poultry raising and things agricultural, that publication will give two handsome cups to the amateur poultry raisers in Anderson. The following is the letter:

"We are in receipt of your kind letter under date of 26th instant, and we are pleased to note you have organized a poultry association in your vicinity. Mention of same will be made in the November issue of our magazine, and we will lend our best aid towards promoting your show and association."

"We have two beautiful little cups that we would be pleased to donate to your show, if you will make mention of same in your premium list, for the best display by an amateur boy or girl."

"The Southern Fancier-Farmer believes the more interest that is taken in poultry shows by the boys and girls is the only way in which the industry will ever build up. We realize the boys and girls of today must be the poultrymen of tomorrow, and if we have a number of these in line as the older ones drop out the younger ones can take their place."

"These cups are very small, but exceptionally neat and tasty, and we believe any boy or girl winning them would be proud of them all their lives."

"Assuring you of our appreciation, and thanking you for the many favors that you have conferred upon us in the past, we are
